H. LAWLER.

TO THE PEOPLE.

Final Appeal of the Prohibition State Central Committee.

CITIZENS OF NEBRASKA: These few last words of warning and encouragement are addressed to every patriotic home builder and bread winner in our beloved state. The Amendment campaign culminates in the final battle on the 4th day of November. That one day will practically settle for years, so far as our state is concerned, whether the drink traffic shall be outlawed, or whether it shall be given the sanction of our citizens, who have witnessed its awful career of crime in state and nation.

BRIEFLY REVIEWED.

The agents of the brewers, distillers and saloon-keepers have conducted a campaign replete with audacious falsehood and malignant slander. Such disreputable methods to deceive the people were never before employed in the history of Nebraska.

Claiming to represent the business interests and moral welfare of the state, the desperate tools of the consolidated liquor power have boycotted, bulldozed and corrupted every man weak enough to be influenced by their bravado or deluded by their lying sophistry.

ONE GREAT FACT.

Let this one great fact be made plain to every citizen of Nebraska. The National Liquor League, the wealthy brewers of Milwaukee, the millionaire distillers of Peoria and every whiskey corporation in Nebraska with every saloon-keeper and that saloon's retinue of thieves, thugs and moral lepers, all these are united in a struggle for life, with those representing the higher intelligence, the nobler manhood, the social, moral and political welfare of our grander civilization.

HOW TO DEFEAT THESE FOES OF OUR STATE. Organize an Amendment Committee in every voting precinct. Pledge from five to fifty workers to give the entire day, November 4th, to this all important work. Abandon the work of your farms, offices, stores and shops for this one day, in the interests of the homes of Nebraska.

See that plenty of tickets are sent to every precinct in good time for use, and keep close watch for fraudulent and defective ballots which will be circulated by the enemy. Spot every hired poll worker of the saloon side and detail shrewd men to head off their tricks and break down their influence. Be on your guard against all manner of fraud, deception and illegal voting and STAY AND WATCH THE COUNT. The law provides that the canvases of ballots shall be public. Have at least two witnesses to the canvases of ballots at every polling place and report the result to headquarters at Lincoln as soon as it is known.

REMEMBER THIS.

Do not get tired on the afternoon of election day. Fight every inch, every hour, every minute till the last vote is cast. It requires a majority of all votes cast to carry the Amendment. That majority is in sight; but negligence or over-confidence will bring defeat. It was Napoleon's maxim never to despise or underestimate the strength of the enemy. Remember that a ballot cast blank operates the same as though cast against the Amendment.

TO VOTE FOR THE PROHIBITORY AMENDMENT see that your ballots contain either written or printed, or partly written and partly printed, these words:

"For proposed Amendment to the Constitution, prohibiting the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be licensed and regulated by law."

See also that these words appear on your ballot as a vote:

AGAINST THE LICENSE AMENDMENT. Be sure and cast this also:

"Against said proposed Amendment to the Constitution that the manufacture, sale and keeping for sale of intoxicating liquors as a beverage shall be licensed and regulated by law."

Only a few days remain in which to do all that can be done to insure a victory over the saloon. Believing that you will vigorously and successfully press the battle to its close, we remain

Yours for the home,
A. ROBERTS, Secretary.
C. E. BENTLEY, Chairman.

The Latest and Best Cyclopaedia.

The twenty-fourth volume of ALDEN'S MAXWELL CYCLOPEDIA has been issued. Though conducted in a quiet manner, this Cyclopaedia is one of the great literary undertakings of the time. Something of its magnitude may be seen by the fact that the closing topic of the present volume is Montem. Sixteen more volumes will be required to complete the alphabet, all of which are promised within the year 1891. In the present volume, five states are treated; Michigan is given over 16 pages; Minnesota, about 13 pages; Mississippi, about 9 pages; Missouri, 12 pages; and Montana, 10 pages. Mexico is also treated at length. Among the cities described are Memphis, Tenn., and the historic Memphis of Egypt; Meriden, Mexico; Milan, Milwaukee, Minneapolis, and Mobile. There are biographies of Mendelssohn and Meyerbeer, celebrated musicians; Michelangelo, artist; John Stewart Mill, politician; economist and philosopher; Hugh Miller, Christian geologist; Milton, the historian; Milton, the poet; O. M. Mitchell and Maria Mitchell, astronomers; Moliere, French poet and dramatist; Mommsen, the historian; James Monroe, President of the United States; and Montefiore, the renowned Jewish philanthropist. Among the important topics in other lines are Meteorology, Methodist Episcopal Church, Miasma, Michigan University, Microscope, Mind, Mining, Miracle, Missions, Mohammedanism, and money. There are, of course, multitudes of others of perhaps equal interest. The matter is well brought down to date, and the illustrations are numerous and helpful. Paper, printing, and binding are good, and the prices, 75 cents a volume for cloth binding, $1.00 for half-Morocco, with easy installment terms, place it within easy reach. Specimen pages mailed on request. JOHN B. ALDEN, Publisher, New York, Chicago and Atlanta.

Union Prayer Services.

"How are the mighty fallen?" BY RYM, WHEATLEY and GUY? Therefore as christian people, believing in the promise of God that "where two or three agree touching one thing, and ask it in my name it shall be granted unto you") we have resolved to hold a union prayer service on November 4th, at the M. E. church: services in the morning from 9 to 10 o'clock, and from 2:30 to 3:30 in the afternoon. All christian people who believe in the efficacy of prayer and are in favor of this Prohibition Amendment are earnestly requested to meet with us, that our united prayer may ascend to the throne of grace in behalf of the WEAK, the TRIED and the TEMPTED. We would especially appeal to the wives and mothers of this precinct, when your husbands and sons leave your side, to cast their votes at the polls, will you come to the house of prayer and join with us in entreating the Lord to guide their BALLOTS for "GOD, HOME AND NATIVE LAND."

HON. N. V. HARLAN merits your vote. McKeighan has no valid claim on a self-respecting citizen of Red Willow county.

HON. L. D. RICHARDS is worthy of your suffrage. Vote the straight republican ticket.
